

During the month The Maple Center provides free workshops to our local CODA families. The workshops vary based on the needs of the families. Topics include craft therapy, journaling, meditation, mindful eating, nutrition/cooking class, parenting, recovery services, storybook reading with kids activities, and yoga.